1.4 You will not be discriminated against or subjected to a detriment for taking leave in accordance with this policy.

2. FREQUENTLY USED TERMS

2.1 The definitions in this paragraph apply in this policy.

3. PERSONNEL RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS POLICY

3.1 Our Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy and for ensuring compliance with the relevant statutory framework.

3.2 Managers have a specific responsibility to ensure the fair application of this policy.

3.3 All members of staff are responsible for supporting colleagues and ensuring its success.

4. ENTITLEMENT TO PATERNITY LEAVE

4.1 Paternity leave is available to employees of either gender, for the purpose of caring for a child, or supporting the child's other parent, in the following cases:

4.1.1 On the birth of a child, where either:

4.1.1.1 You are the biological father and expect to have some responsibility for the child's upbringing; or

4.1.1.2 You are the mother's Partner, and you expect to have main responsibility with the mother for the child's upbringing.

4.1.1.3 On the birth of a child to a surrogate mother where you are, or your Partner is, one of the child's biological parents, and you expect to obtain a parental order giving you and your Partner responsibility for the child.

4.1.1.4 Where an adoption agency places a child with you and/or your Partner for adoption and you expect to have main responsibility (with your Partner) for the child's upbringing.

4.1.1.5 Where a local authority places a child with you and/or your Partner under a fostering for adoption arrangement and you expect to have main responsibility (with your Partner) for the child's upbringing.

4.2 To qualify for paternity leave you must have been continuously employed by us for at least 26 weeks ending with the 15th week before the Expected Week of Childbirth or the week in which you or your Partner are notified by the adoption agency or local authority that you/they have been matched with a child.

4.3 In adoption, fostering for adoption, and surrogacy cases, you may wish to consider adoption leave instead. Only one parent can take adoption leave so you should discuss this with your Partner. You cannot take both paternity leave and adoption leave. Please see the Adoption Leave Policy for further information.

4.4 You cannot take paternity leave if you have already taken shared parental leave in respect of the same child. You may be eligible to take shared parental leave after paternity leave. Please see the Shared Parental Leave policy for more information.

5. TIMING AND LENGTH OF PATERNITY LEAVE

5.1 Paternity leave must be taken as a period of either one week or two weeks. Which can be taken in weekly instalments.

5.2 The Paternity Leave (Amendment) regulations 2024 coming into effect from the 8th March 2024 and will apply only to children whose expected week of birth begins after 6 April, will allow fathers or partners to divide their statutory paternity leave into one-week blocks rather than taking it all at once.

5.3 Leave can be taken at any time during the first 52 weeks following the birth/placement of a child.

5.4 Only one period of paternity leave applies even if more than one child is born/placed for adoption as part of the same arrangement.

6. NOTIFICATION

6.1 To take paternity leave employees must notify the employer that they wish to take leave 15 weeks before the expected week of childbirth. The notice period necessary for each term of absence is four weeks.

6.1.1 The Expected Week of Childbirth or the Expected Placement Date;

6.1.2 The date you would like your leave to start (which may be a specified date after the start of the Expected Week of Childbirth or the Expected Placement Date, the actual date of birth or a specified number of days after birth); and

6.1.3 Whether you intend to take one week or two weeks' leave.

6.2 We may require a signed declaration from you that you are taking paternity leave to care for the child or to support the child's other parent in caring for the child.

7. CHANGING LEAVE DATES OR CANCELLING LEAVE

7.1 You may vary the start date of your paternity leave if you give notice as follows:

7.1.1 If you wish to start your leave on the day of the child's birth or on the day that the child is placed with you or the adopter, at least 28 days before the first day of the Expected Week of Childbirth or the Expected Placement Date.

7.1.2 If you wish to start your leave on a specified number of days after the child's birth or placement, at least 28 days (minus the specified number of days) before the first day of the Expected Week of Childbirth or the Expected Placement Date.

7.1.3 If you wish to start your leave on a specific date that is different to the original start date you informed us of, at least 28 days before that date.

7.2 If you are unable to give us 28 days' written notice as set out above, you should do so as soon as you can.

8. PATERNITY PAY

8.1 In this paragraph, Relevant Period means the eight-week period ending with the Qualifying Week which is the 15th week before the Expected Week of Childbirth or the week in which you or your Partner were notified of being matched with the child.

8.2 If you take paternity leave in accordance with this policy, you will be entitled to statutory paternity pay (SPP) if, during the Relevant Period, your average weekly earnings are not less than the lower earnings limit set by the government.

8.3 SPP is paid at a prescribed rate which is set by the government for the relevant tax year, or at 90% of your average weekly earnings calculated over the Relevant Period if this is lower.

9. TERMS AND CONDITIONS DURING PATERNITY LEAVE

9.1 All the terms and conditions of your employment remain in force during paternity leave, except for the terms relating to pay. In particular:

9.1.1 Benefits in kind shall continue.

9.1.2 Annual leave entitlement under your contract shall continue to accrue.

9.1.3 Pension benefits shall continue (see paragraph 11).

10. ANNUAL LEAVE

10.1 Annual leave will accrue during paternity leave at the rate provided under your contract.

10.2 Our holiday year runs from 1 January to 31 December. If you are taking a period of paternity leave that will continue into the next holiday year, any holiday entitlement for the year that cannot reasonably be taken before starting your paternity leave can be carried over to the next holiday year and must be taken within three months of returning to work unless your line manager agrees otherwise. Carry over is limited to one week's holiday or less and following your line manager's approval.

10.3 You should discuss your holiday plans with your line manager in good time before starting your paternity leave. All holiday dates are subject to approval by your line manager following the normal process for holiday approvals.

11. PENSIONS

11.1 During paternity leave we shall continue to make any employer contributions that we usually make into a money-purchase pension scheme, based on what your earnings would have been if you had not been on paternity leave, provided that you continue to make contributions based on the paternity pay you are receiving. If you wish to increase your contributions to make up any shortfall you should contact your line manager.

12. RETURNING TO WORK

12.1 You are normally entitled to return to work after paternity leave to the same position you held before commencing leave. Your terms of employment will be the same as if you not been absent.

12.2 However, if you have taken paternity leave straight after or straight before a period of parental leave of more than four weeks, and it is not reasonably practicable for us to allow you to return to the same job, we may give you another suitable and appropriate job on terms and conditions that are not less favourable.

13. FLEXIBLE WORKING

13.1 We will deal with any requests by employees to change their working patterns (such as working part time) after paternity leave on a case-by-case basis. We will try to accommodate your wishes unless there is a justifiable reason for refusal, bearing in mind the needs of our business. It is helpful if requests are made as early as possible. The procedure for making and dealing with such requests is set out in our Flexible Working Policy.
